True and False Conservatism.

We briefly adverted yesterday to the veto of the Governor of Virginia of the amended charter of the city of Petersburg, and commended the action of the Executive as one which was calculated to inspire hope that Conservatism in that State, as illustrated by Governor Kemper, means something more than it does in other Southern States. In all countries in which political parties exist, something depends upon the names which parties take or are thrust upon them. Especially do the names exert an influence when these parties are in process of formation. A cognomen which was the designation of a party which may have become odious, is judiciously abandoned when the party falls to pieces.

Of all the titles which political organizations has borne, none are more respectable than that of Conservative. And scarcely under any other have greater abuses been continued, or oppressions committed, than under this captivating name. In the South it has distinguished not a political party in the nation, but a faction, whose object was, several years ago, to resist progress and improvement, and at present to overturn the governments which have been in operation for years. Theirs has been a conservatism of abuses, which fiercely opposed the spirit of the age, reform and civilization.

The only real conservatism which at present exists in this country, is found in the Republican party. This party is national. It has done much for the elevation of the human race. There is no other organization at present in the country which presents principles which are the same in one State as in another. The knots and factions into which the opposition is divided, are without a common purpose.

We trust that Virginia has a few more Conservatives of the character and principles of Governor Kemper. But it is to be feared that the party which lately elected him will repudiate this true act of Conservatism, and be likely to regard him as its enemy. If his party in Virginia does come to his support, it will be immeasurably in advance of its friends in the South, and will travel over political ground which the remainder of it does not appear likely to ever tread.

A British mob had an opportunity a few days ago to air their loyalty, in a blinding snow storm, on the occasion of the entry of the Duke of Edinburgh and his bride into London. Dispatches state that the casualties amounted to four killed and more than a score wounded. Although it can readily be conceded that if the marriage party had passed through an American city, that the excitement would have been as great, yet that does not alter the absurdity of it. That many thousands of people should expose themselves to the manifest dangers which beset the concourse which welcomed the Duke and wife to London, simply to do honors to royalty seems curious enough. But as the British pay pretty roundly for the pageant of monarchy, we suppose that they want the worth of their money.

New Hampshire.

The New Hampshire State election proves that the Republicans in that State have frittered their strength in going off on independent issues. The prohibition voters were all, or nearly all drawn from the Republican ranks, and their zeal for their opinions led them to sacrifice their politics to their temperance views. We have no quarrel with them for so doing. We are satisfied that upon national questions they will be faithful to the party which they have heretofore supported. The New Hampshire Democrat is a very different individual from the man in North Carolina or Georgia who says he is of that faith.

In fact there was not a great deal of interest manifested in the election. Many people were satisfied with either candidate for Governor, and did not vote. The Republican party may ponder the lesson that in unity alone there is strength, and that if our power is dissipated by side issues our defeat is certain.

A Georgia minister boasts a family of thirty two children, and when he takes them all to church on Sundays they occupy four whole pews, and even then, stop over into the aisle. As a consequence, their views of divine worship are simply pew-or-aisle.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

—The wife's secret—Her opinion of her husband.

—California is ahead of the older States in one thing. It taxes church property.

—A petition is circulating in Stockton, Cal., in favor of introducing the study of the Irish language in the public schools.

—The pupils of a girls' school in Pittsburg, out for their daily promenade, were recently mistaken for an approaching band of temperance reformers, and their appearance was the signal for a general closing up of the saloons.

—Henry Souther, a farmer in San Felipe, California, is building a plough so large and heavy that one hundred horses will be required to draw it through the ground. He expects with it to throw out a ditch four feet deep and five feet wide.

—A Detroit lunatic recently stole a baby from its cradle, while its mother was absent for a moment, and carried his plunder in triumph to his friends. They, however, saw no cause for rejoicing, and bribed him with a dollar to show them where he had stolen it from and carry it back.

—A Nebraska journal invitingly "Who says farmer cannot get rich in this State? Fifteen years ago a young man came to this State without a dollar in the world. Last week he went out of the State, carrying with him the sum of one dollar and thirty-eight cents, the savings of fifteen years of frugal life. Come West, young man, come West.

—Dispatches from northwestern Iowa report continued suffering among the settlers on homesteads in Ocala, Byron and other counties in the extreme northwestern portion of the State, caused by the failure of their crops.

Dr. McCoy, of Iowa, is now in Chicago soliciting aid for the sufferers, and has already collected some $600.—The Board of Trade has appointed a committee to solicit aid from the members of the Board and others.

Notwithstanding the vast proportions of the cathedral of St. Paul's, in London, it is said to be warmed as perfectly, when in the coldest winter weather, as is possible with any ordinary dwelling. The cubic contents of this building—one of the very largest in the world—are given in round numbers, at five million feet, the dome itself containing some two millions. But, notwithstanding the greatness of this area, a method of warming has been devised by which there is seldom a variation of temperature in any part of the interior of the structure greater than two degrees, the average temperature being about fifty-four degrees. As an evidence of the efficacy of this plan, the fact is mentioned that on one occasion the temperature was raised, in ten hours, from forty to fifty-eight degrees, and this without relatively increasing by more than two degrees the heat of the upper portion of the dome.

The whole apparatus, too, is under easy control, and the hydrometric condition of the air is constantly maintained in a healthy state. All this is effected by the use of a number of powerful stoves, of peculiar construction, a number of which are placed in the crypt, and have large gratings over them through which the warm air ascends, while others are provided with downcasts for the cold descending current to be warmed. The cost of the fuel is estimated to be about two cents per hour for each stove; the whole of them, however, are not used at one time, except in very severe weather. The average cost of the whole fuel consumed during the three winter months is stated to be not more than twenty-five dollars per week.

The Bridgeport Farmer says: "We are now informed from the most reliable possible source, that all the Colvocoresses insurance suits have been fully settled. Not only has the formal agreement between the parties been executed, but the greater part of the money had already been actually paid over. The basis of the compromise was 50 per cent, on the face of the policies, with no deduction for premium notes or for the amounts due at the time of the Captain's death. On this basis the heirs receive $105,000 from the companies. The total amount of the property left by Captain Colvocoresses including the money from the insurance companies is $135,000, on all the policies obtained by the Captain upon his life, he never paid in premiums but $800."

A notable lady had long been annoyed and fretted by her town servants, and being no longer able to bear their manifold tricks and malpractices, she intimated to her friends her purpose of getting an unsophisticated girl from the country, whom she could train to her mind. She was fortunate enough in securing a young woman from a remote corner of the land, thoroughly recommended for activity, honesty and good nature. How the process of training went on, may be judged from the following specimen. The girl having seen something very wonderful going on in the street, in a tone of unsophisticated familiarity called to her mistress: "Eh! woman, come here and see this." "Woman! I do you presume to call me, your mistress, a woman?" "Ay—if ye are not a woman, what are ye? Are ye a spirit?"

A Dutch Congressman remarked: "Ven I was elected I thought I would find dem all Solomon down here, but I found dere was some as pick fools here as minself."

North Carolina is not only in its western counties exceedingly fertile, but abounds in rich minerals. Great stores of gold, iron, and copper lie buried among the hills awaiting development. Fields of wheat, yielding one hundred bushels to the acre, with oats, rye, and barley flourish in the "dead-lands," where the timber has been cleared, and the undergrowth cleared. Timothy and orchard grass grow as tall as the wheat, the native grape covers the hill sides, and varieties of grapes can be so selected and planted as to ripen at different periods of the autumn.

WORLD'S EXPOSITION, VIENNA, 1873,

3. The Grand Medal for Progress, awarded for their New No. 6 Sewing Machine, being for progress made since the Paris Exposition of 1867, at which the only Gold Medal for Sewing Machines was awarded to this Company. 7. The Official Report, published by the General Direction of the Vienna Exposition, signifies the supremacy of the Wheeler & Wilson Company for quantity and quality of manufacture, and position in the Sewing Machine business, as follows:

OFFICIAL REPORT, VIENNA EXPOSITION, SEWING MACHINES, &c.

(GROUP 13, SECT. 2, N.)

"The greatest Sewing Machine Manufactures in the world is that of Wheeler & Wilson, New York, which alone has brought already over 900,000 of their Sewing Machines into practical use. The complete production of the parts by machinery is so regulated that each complete machine may be used as a sample for exhibition. This firm produces 600 well adjusted machines daily.

"The latest production of this firm, and which is the wonder of the Vienna Exposition, is their new No. 6 Sewing Machine. This universal machine sews the heaviest leather harness and the finest gauzes with a truly perfect stitch.

"Wheeler & Wilson have received the highest prizes at all World's Expositions, and at the Vienna Exposition were extraordinarily distinguished."

JOHN SCRUTZ, Observer, U. S. A.

No Mayor's Court this morning.

At Pine Forest Cemetery the interments for the week were two adults.

REV. DR. WATSON was too unwell to hold services in St. James' Church yesterday.

The Fox and Denair Pantomime Troupe give two performances in the Opera House, commencing 30th inst.

The new stores under the National Hotel are nearly finished. They improve the looks of the street very much.

THERE were slaughtered and brought to market during the past week, 43 hogs, 35 sheep, 10 calves, and 2 deer.

EXCELSIOR ROCK LIME--A superior article. For sale at twenty-five per cent. less than other lime, by KECHNER & CALDER BROS., and WORTH & WORTH, 10-11m.

The registration books will be open in the Fourth Ward from 12 to 2 o'clock each day until the election, at the Engine House on Ann between Front and Second streets. All who have not registered can do so.

A NUISANCE--The storing of guano on Water street, is becoming to be an intolerable nuisance to those who pass that odorous thoroughfare. Something should be done to abate it by the municipal authorities.

RECEIPTS at the City Treasury for the week are as follows:
Special License tax, $808 10
Real and personal tax, 20 80
Dray License, 29 00
Total, $857 90

ROSWAY--A horse ran away with a dray, this morning on Market street. The driver had left them while he was delivering some packages, when a boy in passing, leaped on the dray, frightening the horse, who ran. The boy narrowly escaped being severely hurt.

WE are glad to say that the city fathers have done away with the spasmodic attempts of patching the side walks, heretofore indulged in, and that they have gone earnestly to work improving the looks of the city and the comfort of the citizens by paving.

EFFECTS of panic tremendous: Tumult in prices at

S. HANSTEIN & CO'S New York House, 15 Market st.

The following changes of Registrars and Inspectors of Election have been made by the Mayor.

First Ward--W. H. Beasley, vice J. A. Lowery, excused.

Fifth Ward--J. C. Mills, vice Wilkes Morris, and John H. Howe, vice Henry Green, excused.

WENT FOR HIM--Yesterday morning the chain gang and guards indulged in the milling business, and in the afternoon the motive power of one of the wheelbarrows came the David over a son of Ham, who was free to go where he chose but not to laugh at her, a representative of Paddy's Hollow.

REASON WHY--A few days ago we asked "why were shad so much higher here than many other places in the State?" A gentleman dropped in on this morning and answered our query with the following: "The shad are bought by the boat load from fishermen by speculators, who systematically keep the price up. Citizens have to buy from speculators and not from fishermen, as is supposed." Is not the practice indulged in by speculators a violation of a city ordinance? If so, please see to it, gentlemen, under whose jurisdiction the matter comes.

A fine horse stolen from the Court House this morning for seventy-five dollars.

The citizens in the upper part of the city are busily engaged in trimming their trees and shrubbery.

Registration books of the First Ward will be open every day from 12 to 3 o'clock at the Engine House.

Capt. R. Beverly Frazier, the counsel assigned to David Martin by the court, intends to make further efforts in behalf of client. The Captain has labored hard and conscientiously, without the hope of fee or reward.

We return thanks to Messrs. T. H. Smith, H. G. Smallbones, and J. Deane, committee, for an invitation to the fourth annual dinner of the St. George and St. Andrew Society, to be given on the 24th of March. These dinners are about the most welcome of the annual meetings, and we expect to be on hand.

BITE--Henry Herring, a little boy in the employ of Mr. S. G. Hall, was ruthlessly rushed upon last night by a dog which bit him on the side and tore his jacket. Henry was more frightened than hurt, but he has sworn dire vengeance against that dog, and has spent a whole week's wages in buying arsenic.

In a report of the transactions of the Grand Chapter of the Royal Arch Masons of the State of Michigan, at its Twenty-fifth Annual Grand Convocation, held at Detroit, January 1874, we notice that among the foreign correspondents of the Convocation, a report from T. M. Gardner and H. H. Munson, of our city, containing eighty pages, is referred to in a very complimentary manner. The Michiganers say of this report that it "is altogether fraternal in its spirit, and one of the best on our table."

TOOK THEM IN--About a week ago a man, purporting to hail from Baltimore, canvassed the business portion of the city for advertisements to be put in a large "pictorial advertising book," which was to be placed in the reading rooms of our principal hotels. The fellow met with good success and collected about one hundred dollars from some of the merchants and then made off and has not since been seen. It appears that in his hurry he forgot to leave the books. We dislike very much to know that some of our merchants are credulous enough to let a perfect stranger come among them and shave them out of one hundred dollars, whilst if a well known and responsible resident of the city calls on them he meets with no patronage, as has several times been the case.

Shad sell for 90 cents a pair in Salem. Winston wants an Irishman to celebrate the 17th. Kingston will have no No. 1 String Band composed of ladies. The town of Lexington is threatened with the current crusade.

Dr. Grissom, Superintendent of the Maine Asylum, has the bilious fever. A good deal of interest is manifested by the Methodist congregation at Washington.

A huge bear and several cubs were killed in the vicinity of Washington the other day.

There is an unfortunate white boy in Charlotte named Thomas Bryant Bartow Bee Beauregard Breckenridge Robert E. Lee Bonner. He lives, but the family physician is of the opinion that his parents will never raise him to manhood.

There is an old lady in Fredell who does not know the name of the President of the United States, or the Governor of the State, but can tell the name of every Presbyterian minister in the North Carolina Synod, the number of their children, ages, &c.

The News says: On yesterday morning A. H. McDowell, Esq., of Asbury, six miles west of this city, was found dead in his room. A partly empty phial of strychnine on the mantelpiece told the tale of his death. He was in this city on Wednesday, transacting some business, and sought the acquaintance of Rev. Dr. Pritchard, in reference to some disagreement he had with a widow lady in Alabama, with whom he had been corresponding for some time past, though he had never met her. His mind for some time past had, his friends thought, been affected, and it is supposed that this difficulty with his correspondent increased the depression, and it drove him to the commission of the fearful deed in a moment of frenzy. Mr. Dowell was a widower of about 50 years of age, and leaves several children. He has resided in this county for the last eighteen years, and was highly esteemed. The Coroner did not think it necessary to hold an inquest.

Clothing is down, money being scarce, we are offering our entire stock of clothing, boots and shoes at suspension prices.

S. HANSTEIN & CO'S New York House, 15 Market st.

Terrible stories are told, by a Paris correspondent, of the filtration proclivities of American young ladies abroad. The accusations are specific and appalling. They are denounced for "downright laying themselves out to attract the attention of men"--singular and amazing phrase--at the expense of all maidenly reserve, and forgetful of the teachings of home, of its restraints and influences, and at the sacrifice of the propriety which should govern the conduct of every well-regulated young woman who respects as well as admires herself. The fashionable resorts of Europe are given as the scene of the melancholy and irrepressible tendencies to filtration. It is even told that a handsome young German attracted the attention of a bevy of pretty damsels in a public street, and they straightway put him under such a fire of glances of bouquets, and, indeed, of billets-doux, that he presumed upon the partiality, a duel with a ferocious young American brother was nearly the result. At Trouville occupied another similar transaction; and from such scandals Gardon conceived his absurd play which depicts American life as that enterprising playwright fancies it, and not as it exists. These calamities every American will repudiate.

OWING to the late panic we will sell until January 1st, our entire stock at 25 per cent. less than New York cost.

S. HANSTEIN & CO'S New York House, 15 Market st.

There are 2,450 Granges in Indiana, an average of sixteen to each county. There is no Fawcett in the new English Parliament, but there is a member from Cork.

"All right, old hoss, I'll be there," said an Alabama boy, when sentenced to be hanged.

In Utah a criminal condemned to death may choose whether he will be shot or hanged.

"The insurrection of prayer" is what the Graphic calls the operations of temperance women in Ohio.

A Paris letter, referring to the approach of March 16th, when the Prince Imperial will attain his eighteenth year and be of age to govern, says: "For several months past the postoffice has been showering millions upon millions of Bonapartist tracts, handbills and songs over the country. Provincial electors, both in town and country, have received visiting cards bearing the Prince Imperial's photograph, and underneath the words, '16 March, 1874, appeal to the people.' And one cannot travel twenty miles out of Paris without hearing of Bonapartist agents at work in every village, as patiently and tenaciously as new world pioneers."

Saturday, March 14th, 1874.

Philadelphia, March 14. The first two cases of arrest for a violation of the Sunday liquor law were heard in court to-day. The first on trial was that of a saloon keeper, the evidence against whom was that of a policeman, who saw men going into the place and regaling themselves with something that was poured out of a decanter, but what that something was witness could not swear. The Judge in his charge said: "In order to convict the defendant you must be satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the stuff sold was liquor. This question may be settled by positive evidence, by the person who drinks the liquor, or it may be proven by circumstantial evidence, which is equally satisfactory, provided it lead the jury to the same conclusion. Defendant was a man who kept a public house, and upon this day he was found surrounded with all the paraphernalia of liquor business. The jury after a short deliberation rendered a verdict of not guilty. The evidence in the second case was so trifling that the case was abandoned.

WHICH IS THE BEST?
 Which is the best Sewing Machine, is a point on which different Companies differ, each, of course, thinks its own the best, but if the point were to be decided by popularity the Howe Machine would surpass all others. It is a noticeable fact that the Howe Company has

SIX HUNDRED THOUSAND
 of their Machines in use although having existed but six years, while the Company which claims to have most in use, has only about twice that number, though having existed for twenty years.

Until the year 1866, ELIAS HOWE, JR., the

did not manufacture, but was content with receiving the royalty which all Sewing Machine Manufacturers had to pay him for the use of his Patents. A sample of each Machine was sent to Mr.

Howe before a license could be obtained. Constant study upon them enabled him to avoid the defects of each and improve upon the excellences of all. This fact explains the

WONDERFUL DEGREE OF PERFECTION

to which Mr. Howe brought his latest pattern of Machine, without which advantages such a result could not have been achieved. These facts should be borne in mind by all who intend to purchase a Sewing Machine. As the purchase of a Machine may be the act of a lifetime with some, care should be taken to

PURCHASE ONLY THE LATEST AND BEST.

W. D. Goodrich
 On Market Street Near Third,
WILMINGTON, N. C.,
 offers the Howe Machine on such easy terms that no one need longer have an excuse for doing without a Sewing Machine.

No pains, or expense spared to give thorough satisfaction to every customer.

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.
 A weekly magazine of sixty-four pages. THE LIVING AGE gives more than THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND double-column octavo pages of reading-matter yearly, forming four large volumes. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Tales, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.

A NEW SERIES
 was begun Jan. 1, 1873, with entirely new Tales, already embracing Serial and Short stories by distinguished English, French, German, and Russian authors; viz., Lord Lytton (Bulwer), Erckmann-Chatrian, Ivan Turgenev, Miss Thackeray, Mrs. Oliphant, Fritz Reuter, Mrs. Farr (author of "Dorothy Fox"), Julia Kavanagh, &c.

During the coming year, as heretofore, the choicest serial and short stories by the leading Foreign Authors will be given, together with a constant unapproached by any other periodical in the world, the best literary and scientific matter of the day, from the pens of the above-named and other foremost Essayists, Scientists, Critics, Discoverers, and Editors, representing every department of knowledge and progress.

The importance of THE LIVING AGE to every American reader, as the only complete as well as fresh compilation of a generally inaccessible but indispensable current literature, is indisputable because it embraces the productions of THE LIVING AGE WRITERS in all branches of Literature, Science, Art, and Politics,—is sufficiently indicated by the following

OPINIONS.
 "Reproduces the best thoughts of the best minds of the civilized world, upon all topics of living interest."—Philadelphia Quaker.

"In no other single publication can there be found so much of sterling literary excellence."—New York.

"And the cheapest monthly that comes every week."—THE ADVANCE, CHICAGO.
